

Jaclyn is a Licensed Certified Social Worker (LCSW) that has been working with children and families in various capacities since 2008. Jaclyn pursued her undergraduate Psychology degree from Endicott College and interned at various agencies during that time, graduating in 2013. Jaclyn completed her Masters in Social Work (MSW) degree at Simmons College (now Simmons University) in 2017. During graduate studies, Jaclyn held internships as a case manager for unhoused individuals and provided integrated behavioral health at a community health center. For several years after graduating, Jaclyn worked in residential treatment facilities and school settings providing therapy to teens and their caregivers. Jaclyn has experience running groups and facilitating psychotherapy with children, adults and families. In 2022, Jaclyn began working in the outpatient and private practice setting. Jaclyn is experienced and confident working with individuals struggling with conflict, anxiety, depression, PTSD/trauma, substance use and unsafe behaviors. Jaclyn received her certification as a Dialectical Behavior Therapist (DBT) and her work often is informed by this therapeutic framework. Jaclyn also utilizes art therapy, play therapy, CBT, motivational interviewing, internal family systems and narrative therapy in her work with clients.

